

Course Overload Application (Please fill out both sides of this form)

A full course load for students is 6 classes plus a study hall. There are numerous opportunities for co and extra curricular activities at CAJ and many students have busy schedules at church, youth groups, jobs, etc. Students who wish to take more than 6 classes will need to apply for an exemption from taking a study hall. They will also need to seek permission from their parents to apply for an exemption. Students and parents should make thoughtful, intentional decisions about how busy student's schedules are and what they can handle. Students who intend to take AP classes, sports, are involved in music or theater, have jobs, or have busy schedules from other factors, are strongly discouraged from giving up their study hall time. Study halls are also an opportunity for students to seek additional help as needed and to make use of school resources. As stated in the handbook: "CAJ reserves the right to limit a student's course load."

List all classes you intend to register for:

- 1) Bible & PE
- 2) English
- 3) World History
- 4) Physical Science
- 5) Math (Geometry or Algebra I)
- 6) _____
- 7) _____
- 8) _____

Zero Period (circle those that apply) (these activities are the equivalent of one class spread over the entire year). Having an zero period class counts as .5 and thus may put you over the 6 classes. Zero period activities include Chambers, Handbells, StuCo, Orchestra, Jazz Band.
